1. CITY Sightseeing

Paris - The romance, the elegance, the beauty - Paris is a dream that you'll be living during your stay. See the cobbled streets of the Left Bank, the Napoleonic splendour of the Ecole Militaire and of course the Eiffel Tower! Take time out to explore the Paris you've been looking for on an open top bus tour; historical, romantic, fashionable, fun and shopper friendly.

2. BATEAUX MOUCHE

Cruise up the majestic Seine and discover the sights of Paris from a new perspective. From the water it is possible to see the bridges and monuments of Paris as you could never hope to from land. River Cruises deliver spectacular and hidden views of this magnificent city. An informative historical and cultural commentary is available on-board.

3. MONTMARTRE

Walking down its streets, you are always sure to enjoy the same somewhat bohemian atmosphere. After having climbed the many steps to the top of the hill, it is a very pleasant surprise to discover one of the most beautiful viewpoints of Paris, to stroll around the Place du Tertre and visit the Sacred Heart. And why not go all the way down to the foot of the hill and push open the door to the Moulin Rouge?

4. ILE DE LA CITE

The Ile de la Cité is the cradle of Parisian civilization. It was here that the Parisii tribe lived. It stayed the area's centre of activity throughout the Middle ages. Notre-Dame (begun in 1163), Sainte-Chapelle (built in 1245), and the Conciergerie are the last three Middle-Aged buildings left on the island.

5. CHAMPS ELYSEES

Considered the most beautiful avenue in the world, Paris's Champs-Elysees, extending from the Place de la Concorde to the Arc de Triomphe, has been the center of the city's elegant shopping, glitzy cabarets, cafes, and restaurants for more than 150 years.

6. SHOPPING GRANDS MAGASINS - The Department Stores

Behind their fairy tale window displays, the big department stores of Paris have become unmissable monuments. Considered Europe's premier shopping centre with its 120 million visitors each year, Boulevard Haussmann is a city within a city. Hurry out to the stores and you are guaranteed to spend an unforgettable day of shopping !
