Vancouver Lookout

We will take you for a short walk around Downtown Vancouver and head towards the Lookout, which is the perfect first stop for visitors and locals alike. It offers a fascinating bird’s eye view of our city.

UBC Anthropology Museum

The UBC Museum of Anthropology is one of Canada’s foremost museums, renowned for its Northwest Coast Collections and collaborative approach to working with the First Nations and other cultural communities.

Vancouver Art Gallery

The Vancouver Art Gallery, located in a stunning, turn-of-the-century heritage building in the heart of downtown Vancouver, is the 5th largest art gallery in Canada. Its permanent collection of over 9,100 items includes more than 200 major works by Emily Carr and the Group of Seven and illustrations by Marc Chagall.

Grouse Mountain

Take North America’s largest aerial tramway and see breathtaking views of the city of Vancouver, the Pacific Ocean, the Gulf Islands, and snowy peaks as you journey up the mountain side. The tram will take you on a one-mile aerial journey to the Alpine Station, 3700 feet above sea level.

Vancouver Aquarium & Stanley Park

The underwater wonderland is home to a variety of fish and aquatic animals in natural habitats.

Underwater windows provide a rare close-up view of these creatures.

The aquarium is located in the famous Stanley Park, which has over 1000 acres of dense West Coast forest. You can walk through marked trails or around the sea wall to take in the views of the boats passing by.

Granville Island & Brewery

Developed in 1979 from what used to be an industrial area under the Granville Street Bridge, the island features live entertainment and an amazing food market. Sample freshly made fudge and warm donuts or view the colourful houseboats. We will also visit the Granville Island Brewery, where you can taste some locally brewed beer.

Note: Price does not include registration fee ($130), premium attraction admissions, accommodation or cost of meals. For more information or to sign up for this program, please contact us at:
