

Russia

(detailed course description)

Standard Russian Courses

Courses start every Monday and include:

- 20 lessons/week
- Maximum 12 students per class
- 50-minute lessons

Lessons are held from Monday to Friday, 10.00 - 14.00

Intensive Russian Courses

Courses start every Monday and include:

- 25 lessons/week
- Maximum 12 students per class
- 50-minute lessons

You will have twenty morning lessons with students who have booked the standard group course. The remaining five lessons are taught on two afternoons, offered at a minimum of three different levels:

A1 – Beginner: survival Russian tutorials, outdoor classes (shopping, eating out, getting streetwise, ordering theatre and cinema tickets) and telephone training (booking a restaurant table, making flight enquiries, etc.).

A1+/A2 – Elementary: lectures on the Russian mentality and traditions. Other topics cover a wide range of general interest subjects ranging from Russian cuisine to history.

B1 – Intermediate, B2 – Upper Intermediate: the focus is on business and the economy. Other topics include politics, Russian mass media, cultural and historical subjects.

Russian One-to-One (plus 15/20/30/40)

One to one course, where teacher and student will negotiate the programme together, including:

- 15/20/30/40 lessons per week
- 50-minute lessons
- All levels

The course programme depends on professional, academic or personal requirements.