

PSE (Pre-Sessional English) & AIC Test (Aryam International College)

COURSE DESCRIPTION

The Pre-Sessional English (PSE) course is designed to prepare students for the AIC Test (Aryam International College). The course consists of 20 General English lessons and 10 academic English lessons.

The AIC Test takes place at LSI London, and focuses on four key areas:

Reading: comprehension of academic texts and analytical skills

Writing: clarity and coherence in written communication, and argumentative skills

Listening: comprehension of spoken English in formal and conversational settings

Speaking: fluency, accuracy and interaction skills.

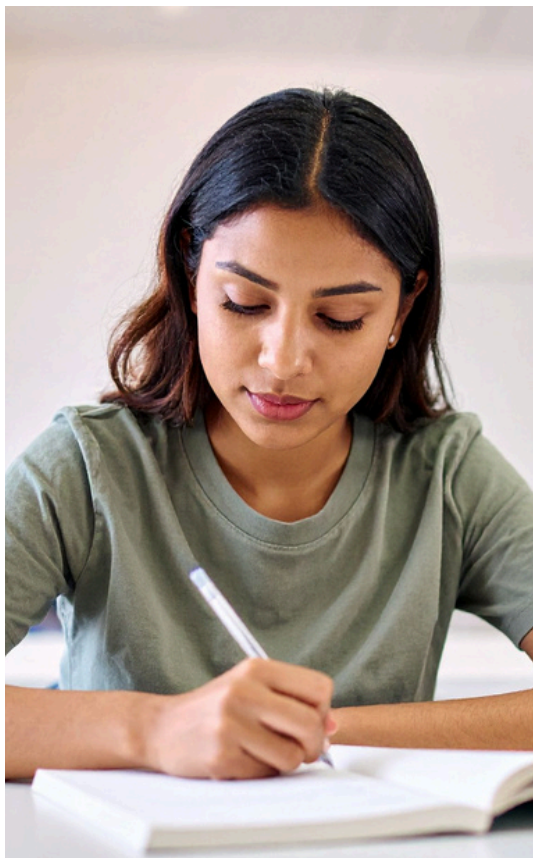

The four sections of the AIC Test take approximately 2 hours and 45 minutes to complete.

Universities accepting the AIC Test: Aston University, Bangor University, Anglia Ruskin University, University of Hertfordshire, University of Middlesex, London South Bank University and University of Sunderland.

COURSE OUTCOMES

By the end of the course, students will:

-  Understand the structure and requirements of the AIC Test, and be familiar with time management techniques.
-  Gain a clear methodology for approaching each question type in the reading, writing, listening and speaking sections.
-  Have completed weekly assessments, and special progression assessments (progression assessments take place every 6 weeks).
-  Have completed two online monitoring sessions (midway and end of the course).
-  Have improved their English proficiency to the level required to attend university in an English-speaking environment.
