LSI Education

FRENCH FOR TEACHING: LANGUAGE & METHODOLOGY

COURSE DESCRIPTION

The French for Teaching: Language & Methodology course is designed for language teachers who want to improve their French language skills while developing a strong understanding of modern teaching methodologies.

The course provides a balanced combination of language development, methodological training and practical classroom application, with a focus on learner-centred approaches and interactive teaching techniques (workshops, group projects and practical activities). The course also offers a fresh, practical perspective on current language teaching ideas and an insight into modern French life and culture.

Participants are required to complete a Needs Analysis Form before arrival to ensures the course content is tailored to their teaching context, experience and goals, and to keep a portfolio. Students are monitored weekly to provide regular feedback and support ongoing improvement. A final assessment at the end of the programme measures participants' achievement.

The 30-lesson-per-week programme is an excellent option for Erasmus+ students looking to develop their language and professional skills.

LESSON SCHEDULE

PARIS
Lessons are Monday to Friday,
9:00AM to 12:40PM (with a 20-minute break) and from 13:40PM to 15:20PM

COURSE TOPICS OVERVIEW

The programme covers key areas of language teaching, including CLIL, Language analysis; lesson planning; teaching the skills of reading, writing, listening, speaking; classroom activities; using resources and materials; looking at learners' needs; dealing with learners' mistakes.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

Suitable for teachers of French as a foreign language (FLE), language teachers and trainers and educational staff involved in French language teaching.

The course is designed to enable participants to:

- Improve their English proficiency for professional use
- Develop modern, learner-centred teaching strategies
- Design engaging and interactive lessons
- Increase their confidence in the classroom
- Integrate digital tools into teaching
- Reflect on and enhance their own teaching practice
- Promote intercultural awareness in language learning

WEEK 1
MONDAY Module 1	Explore restorative justice through guided debate and analysis of authentic texts and media, while developing the ability to summarise and interpret complex ideas. Strengthen grammatical accuracy through work on active and passive voice, and develop specialised vocabulary related to justice.
TUESDAY Module 2	Practical workshop on using songs in the FLE classroom, focusing on how to introduce and select songs according to student level and target audience. Develop understanding of different language registers and styles through music.
WEDNESDAY Module 3	Understand satirical commentary on politics and express informed opinions on modern democratic societies. Present and defend viewpoints on media-driven politics, write an argumentative essay on voting, and expand vocabulary related to democracy and political systems.
THURSDAY Module 4	Cultural activity: City exploration & French language immersion Discover French culture through a guided city exploration, using French in authentic, real-life contexts. Develop intercultural awareness by interacting with local heritage, architecture, markets, cafés, museums, and public spaces
FRIDAY Module 5	Practical workshop on using games in the FLE classroom, while developing teaching practices, vocabulary, and language skills through discussions on climate innovation and environmental challenges such as heatwaves, water, and housing.
WEEK 2
MONDAY Module 6	Explore art and culture through authentic audiovisual and written material. Develop the ability to discuss the role of technology in contemporary youth art, while improving listening, reading and debating skills. Refine the use of emphasis to foreground and nuance ideas and opinions.
TUESDAY Module 7	Develop practical strategies for managing mixed-ability FLE classrooms and identifying approaches that respond to diverse learner profiles. Learn how to encourage active participation from every student and foster a more inclusive and supportive learning environment.
WEDNESDAY Module 8	Analyse an interview with an Ivorian feminist librarian and a podcast on masculinities to explore key gender issues. Explain mental load and develop structured arguments on the impact of gender stereotypes. Build vocabulary around feminism, identity, power relations, masculinity and social change, including word formation through prefixes and suffixes.
THURSDAY Module 9	Cultural activity: City exploration & French language immersion Discover French culture through a guided city exploration, using French in authentic, real-life contexts. Develop intercultural awareness by interacting with local heritage, architecture, markets, cafés, museums, and public spaces
FRIDAY Module 10	Explore contemporary social issues through discussions on gender, identity, science, and healthcare. Analyse topics such as feminism, masculinities, assistive technology, and medical innovation, while developing structured arguments, expanding vocabulary related to social change and healthcare, and strengthening narrative skills in the past tense.

COURSE DETAILS
LESSONS: 30 lessons per week* (25 hours of teacher contact time per week)	COURSE LENGTH: 1-2 weeks	AGES: 18+	2027 START DATES: 11th January, 12th April, 19th July & 16th August	MINIMUM LEVEL: Strong B2 Upper-intermediate

*If there are fewer than four participants, the programme will be adjusted to include 20 lessons of General French and 10 afternoon lessons with a focus on language teaching methodology.

Groups are welcome year-round, with tailored programmes available to suit your needs and objectives.

2027 PRICES PER PERSON PER WEEK
French for Teaching	€650
Registration fee*	€115

Course materials included*

Looking for a more personalised programme?

We offer tailor-made, one-to-one courses fully customised to fit your schedule and focused on the exact skills you need to excel in your role. Whether you're aiming to strengthen your teaching practice, enhance subject knowledge, or address specific classroom challenges, our flexible approach ensures practical, immediately applicable results in the classroom.